ULSTER SAVINGS BANK NOW SHOWCASING STUDENT ART EXHIBIT AT NEW PALTZ BRANCH

The public is invited to Ulster Savings Bank's 226 Main Street, New Paltz branch to view the branch's latest exhibit, a showcase of artwork from 6th Grade students at New Paltz Middle School. The exhibit will be available for public viewing through Friday, June 11th.

The exhibit, which features watercolor paintings utilizing animal drawings to reflect the students' personalities, was created under the supervision of New Paltz Middle School art instructors Kim Suurgis and Susan Gruschow. During the development of this artwork, the students learned some of the basic elements of art, including line variations, patterns, textures and color properties.

For more information about the art exhibit, please contact New Paltz Sr. Branch Manager Rocco Pucino III at 255-5470, ext. 4202 or Branch Manager Mariann Knoth at ext. 4201.
